General Notes: Husband -

Jacob and his brother Urbanus Luursezen set sail about 1646 for New Netherland. the name used by the Dutch ro refer to that section this new land along the (hudson) river claimed by the Netherland after Hudson's discovery. Jacob and Urganus were in the employeee of the dutch West Indies company according to powers of attorney made at New Amsterdam in 1647 and 1648.

Jacob soon moved his family up the (Hudson) river to Fort Orange, the oldest and largest Dutch trading post in New Netherland. Jacob first took the pledge of allegiance to the Patroon on Renssalaerswyck, then received a grant of land from Governor Stuvesant in the newly formed villege Beverwyck (now Albany, NY). Jacob's name appears often in the court records of Fort Orange, he seemed tohave a penchant for getting into minor troubles. Church Deacons' records show Jacob died there in 1655. In the Dutch Manuscripts of New York there is mention of a Corporal Jacob Luurszen receiving multiple stab wounds att emptying to breadup a flight in New Amsterdam. The stall of the New Netherland Project confirm that The West Indies Company maintained it's own militia and employed young civilian men as its soldiers. Since the records do not show any other Jacob Luurszen in New Netherland this must be our Jacob. Stab wounds may have contributed to his early death.

Jacob's widow, Stijntje married Claes Teunissen who later moved the family inland to a more remote area known by the Indian name, Esopus also known by the Dutch name, Wiltwyck (Now Kingston, Ulter, New York) Claes and Stijntje's names appear in both Fort Orange and Wiltwyck records.
